To Whom It May Concern:

Per my telephone discussion with your Customer Service Department, I am requesting a complete payment history and a copy of the original Note and Mortgage on the above captioned account. Your records indicate that a balance is still due on this mortgage. My records show that this loan was paid off with the 7-01-03 mortgage payment. My records show that the first payment was due on 11-01-74 and was paid at closing. My records also show that the last payment was due on 10-01-04. In 1986, 1987 and 1988, I paid a total of 15 principal payments. All other payments were made through 7-01-03. Based on my records, the 7-01-03 payment should have paid my loan in full.

Your Customer Service told me that the first payment was not due on 11-01-74, but was due on 1-01-75. They also stated that there is no record of any principle payments made on my loan and there is still a balance due on my mortgage. Please send me a copy of the original Note and Mortgage and a complete loan history so that we may resolve this problem.

If you have any questions, please call me at (216) 524-5538 my home or at my office, (216) 429-1441. I am sure that once I review these records that this matter can be easily resolved.

Very truly yours,

Dear Ms. Burgess:

I have received your letter and a loan history on our account. The loan history which was sent was not complete, it only includes 11-16-98 to the current date. I requested a complete loan history from 11-01-74. A complete loan history is required because 15 principle payments were made in the years of 1986, 1987 and 1988. Your loan history does not include these years. I also requested a copy of the original Note and Mortgage because there is a dispute over the first payment date. I contend that the first payment was made on 11-1-74 and Citimortgage states that the first payment was due 1-1-75.

The only way to resolve these differences is to supply me with a complete loan history from 11-1-74 to the current date and a copy of the original Note and Mortgage. Please send me this information as soon as possible so that this matter can be resolved. If you have any questions, please call me at (216) 524-5538 or (216) 429-1441.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Clifton:

I spoke to you on 1-19-04 regarding obtaining a complete loan history on my account and obtaining a copy of the original Note and Mortgage. You told me that you would obtain this information and send it to me by 2-5-04. As of this date I have not received the information. You also gave me Case# 23290579 to track this request on future calls to your office. On 2-12-04, I called Citimortgage to track my request and gave them the case number. I was told that that case was closed and I would have to make another request for this information. I have made over 20 telephone calls to Citimortgage to obtain this information. This is my third letter requesting this information. My requests began on 9-4-03 and Citimortgage has still not supplied the requested information.

I have done just about all I can do to resolve the problems with my account. Without the information that I have requested, it is impossible to determine the correct first payment date and correct balance on my account. It appears that Citimortgage refuses to co-operate with me to resolve these problems. Citimortgage continues to maintain that the first payment date was 1-5-75 and there is still an outstanding balance due on my account. Yet, Citimortgage refuses to send the information to document their claim. I have faxed a copy of my closing statement to Citimortgage Account Inquires Department to substantiate my claim. The closing statement clearly shows that the first payment was due on 10-1-74 and was paid at closing. Citimortgage has sent no information to substantiate their claim that the first payment date was due 1-1-75. Citimortgage also has not sent a complete loan history to substantiate that no principle payments have been made on this account.

I can do no more to resolve this matter. On numerous occasions, I have told Citimortgage that if they supply the complete loan history and the copy of the original Note and Mortgage and I owe any outstanding balance; I will immediately pay whatever is due. As of this date, I will make no further efforts to resolve these problems until Citimortgage supplies the information that I have requested. I do not believe that this is an unreasonable request.

Mr. Clifton, please call me at (216) 524-5538 or (216) 429-1441 if you have any questions or require any additional information from me.

Very truly yours,
